

Arabic

PSI delivers the Supreme Council of Education Program. The program is taught across four 55 minute lessons a week to both our native and non-native speaking students. The program focuses on the four areas of language. Speaking, listening, reading and writing are covered in interactive ways using different resources to provide quality language instruction by fostering the development of this high quality sustainable Arabic language program for 21st century learners.

